RESPONSE TO PLAINTIFFS' NOTICE OF OPPOSITION TO AMICI MEMORANDUM

3 1. Equality California and the Gay-Straight Alliance Network ("GSA Network")
4 respectfully submit the following Response to Plaintiffs' Notice of Opposition (filed January 21, 5 2008) to the Proposed Amici Curiae Memorandum that Equality California and the GSA Network
6 submitted to the Court electronically on Friday, January 18. Equality California and the GSA
7 Network regret the need to trouble the Court with the matters discussed herein.

8 2. On Friday, January 11, 2008, the State Defendants in this action filed a Motion to 9 Dismiss, which is scheduled to be heard on February 15, 2008, the same date on which the Court is 10 scheduled to hear a Motion for Intervention filed by Equality California and GSA Network. The 11 State Defendants' Motion to Dismiss is based on both Rule 12(b)(1) (lack of subject matter 12 jurisdiction) and Rule 12(b)(6) (failure to state a claim).

13 3. On Friday, January 18, 2008, Plaintiffs, State Defendants, and Proposed 14 Intervenors/Proposed Amici Curiae Equality California and GSA Network filed a Joint Motion and 15 lodged a proposed order that, if approved by the Court, would authorize Equality California and 16 GSA Network to file on that date (January 18, 2008) a proposed amici memorandum in support of 17 the State Defendants' Motion to Dismiss. The conversations among counsel in advance of the 18 January 18, 2008 Joint Motion did not address the content of the proposed amici memorandum,
19 other than describing the proposed memorandum as supporting the State's Motion to Dismiss.
20 Equality California and GSA Network timely submitted their proposed amici memorandum on 21 January 18, 2008, just seven days after the State Defendants filed their Motion to Dismiss, and a 22 full twenty-eight days before the scheduled hearing on the Motion to Dismiss, in order to provide 23 the Court and the parties adequate time to consider the points and authorities contained therein.

24 4. On Monday, January 21, 2008, Plaintiffs, through their counsel, filed a "Notice of 25 Opposition," stating that they oppose the inclusion in the proposed amici memorandum of 26 arguments pertaining to the legal sufficiency of the vagueness cause of action, which, Plaintiffs 27 contend, are beyond the scope of the Defendants' Motion to Dismiss, which the State Defendants 28 based on both Rule 12(b)(1) and Rule 12(b)(6). Plaintiffs' Notice of Opposition requests that the

1 Court either disregard the Rule 12(b)(6) arguments that Proposed Amici, but not the State
2 Defendants, have raised or provide the Plaintiffs sufficient time to respond to the arguments to 3 which Plaintiffs object.

4 5. Equality California and GSA Network wish to bring the following matters to the 5 attention of the Court:

6 a. In contrast to principles that various appellate courts apply in determining 7 whether to consider arguments that amici, but not parties, raise, it is solidly within the 8 discretion of a district court to decide whether and when to consider such arguments
9 proffered by amici. See, e.g., Trunk v. City of San Diego, 2007 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 82647
10 (S.D.Cal. 2007) (Southern District of California Judge Burns directed the parties to address 11 an issue raised by Amicus Pacific Justice Institute in support of Defendants' motion to 12 dismiss either in the parties' "briefing on the motion to dismiss, or in a subsequent 13 motion."). There is certainly nothing inappropriate about amici curiae presenting to the 14 District Court arguments in addition to those presented by the parties so that the Court may 15 consider how best to decide a case.

16 b. The arguments of Proposed Intervenor/Amici to which Plaintiffs object are 17 Rule 12(b)(6) arguments that, though the State Defendants have not yet raised, can be fairly 18 deemed included in a Rule 12(b)(6) Motion, which the State Defendants have filed and can, 19 in the alternative, be considered in the near future as part of a Motion for Judgment on the 20 Pleadings under Rule 12(h)(2) should this action continue through completion of the 21 pleading stage. Proposed Intervenor Equality California and GSA Network have included
22 in their proposed Answer in Intervention an affirmative defense of failure to state a claim 23 (which needs only to be pleaded generally).

24 c. It appears from Plaintiffs' Notice of Opposition that Plaintiffs desire 25 guidance as to whether, and if so, when, they should address arguments regarding the void-26 for-vagueness claims that are contained in section B of the Argument section of the
28 California and GSA Network do not oppose Plaintiffs' apparent request for guidance from

1 the Court as to whether and when to address the above-referenced arguments.

2 6. Equality California and GSA Network's Motion to Intervene is currently scheduled
 3 to be heard on February 15, 2008, at 11:00 a.m. All parties to the case – Plaintiffs and Defendants
 4 – have represented in the Joint Motion regarding the Amicus Brief filed with the Court on 5 January 18, 2008 that the parties do not oppose Equality California and GSA Network's Motion to 6 Intervene. Given the lack of opposition to Equality California and GSA Network's Motion to 7 Intervene, should this Court rule in advance of February 1, 2008 (the due date for parties' responses
 8 to the State's Motion to Dismiss) that Equality California and GSA Network may intervene as party
 9 defendants, Equality California and GSA Network would promptly resubmit their amicus brief
 10 (with minor corrections) as a party Response to the State Defendants' Motion to Dismiss.

11 CONCLUSION

12 For the foregoing reasons, Amici request that this Court (1) grant the Joint Motion
 13 submitted January 18, 2008 requesting leave for Equality California and GSA Network to file a 14 Memorandum as Amici Curiae in support of the State's Motion to Dismiss; (2) provide any 15 guidance that the Court in its discretion may deem advisable regarding whether or when the parties
 16 should address any particular arguments contained in the Proposed Memorandum of Amici Curiae
 17 submitted on January 18, 2008; and (3) give consideration to expedited resolution of
